Prerequisites

Calculus I and II and a letter of recommendation from a faculty member. Preference is given to students with a grade of B or higher in Calculus II (MTH 251, 249 or 249H). A grade of at least C from Calculus II is required.

Classes are taught by Miami faculty on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, so students will have four-day weekends to explore the United Kingdom and the rest of Europe.

Included

- Housing in an AIFS student residence within central London (travel zone 1), 2 students per room, with kitchen facilities and Internet access.
- London Transport travel pass valid for unlimited use on buses and the underground trains in travel zones 1 and 2 for the duration of the program.
- Orientation program in London consisting of an orientation meeting with AIFS staff, student information packet including comprehensive student handbook, local area information and safety and security information.
- Guided half-day sightseeing tour of London by private coach.
- Theater ticket for a London West End production.
- Guided day trip to Cambridge by train with entrance to a Cambridge University College.
- Guided day trip to Stonehenge and Salisbury by private coach with entrance to Stonehenge and Salisbury Cathedral.
- Farewell dinner.

Fees

Based on an enrollment of 10 to 14 participants, the fee per person is $4,375. This fee excludes airfare, a $125 refundable damage deposit, optional medical insurance upgrade ($65) and optional personal effects coverage ($90), passport or visa fees if applicable, meals other than those indicated on the itinerary, personal expenses, any Miami University tuition or administrative fees, textbooks, additional field trips or excursions required by the Miami University faculty and anything not specified.

These fees are guaranteed not to change as a result of fluctuations in the $ exchange rate.

For more information and an application, contact:

Professor Olga Brezhneva
513-529-9753
brezhnoa@muohio.edu

Professor Beata Randrianantoanina
513-529-5916
randrib@muohio.edu